DEDICATION

Looking back on yesterday
I saw a missing part.
To our class of 80
And everybody's heart.

We've all received announcements
The caps and gowns are here.
The yearbook will be out soon,
Our graduation drawing near.

We cried tears when we heard it
That now three of you have passed.
From Morgan High School Territory
To make your eternity last.

We know that your family and friends
Will always keep your thought
We will never forget you
Your lives are on our hearts!

MVL CO-CHAMPIONS

The Morgan Raider Football team ended its '79 season with a 9-1 record making them MVL Co-Champs. The team started out with a 6-0 record that took the seventh game into a showdown with Crooksville. The adverse conditions slowed down the offense and took away the quickness of the defense. This resulted in Morgan's first and last loss of the year. However, the last game of the season, Crooksville lost against Riverview 14-0 whom we had beaten 13-6. Therefore, we tied for the MVL championship.

The Raiders had one of the best offenses in the league. The team's biggest asset was its running game, led by Troy Wagoner, who became the league's leading rusher with 1,197 yards.

When the season ended, the Eastern Ohio Sportswriters chose the all Eastern Ohio Team. Troy Wagoner was chosen for the position of running back; Dan Linscott, offensive end; Dan Davis, offensive tackle; and Jay Knapp, was given honorable mention for defensive end.

"TOO MANY GIRLS"

Too Many Girls, a three act comedy, is the story of Henry Hudson, a confirmed bachelor and his household. Henry's against marriage and forbids his sister, Helen, and nieces, Laura and Dulcy, to talk about it. The family schemes to get Henry to fall in love; along with Grandma Hudson's help, who sends an orphan girl, Spring, they manage to turn the situation into a hilarious love scene ending in a typical wedding.
